

Families affected by imprisonment

Learning & Innovation Workshop
22nd August 2013,
Newbattle Abbey College,
Midlothian EH22 3LL.

This workshop will include the launch of a consultation on the Framework for Working with Families affected by imprisonment in Lothian and Borders.

10.30am – 1pm

(Tea and coffee/informal networking from 10.30am with proceedings beginning at 11am prompt)

The Lothian and Borders Community Justice Authority and Lothian and Borders Criminal Justice Board would like to invite you to a discussion around families affected by imprisonment.

We are delighted to announce that contributors on the day will include David Strang, HM Chief Inspector of Prisons for Scotland, Nancy Loucks, Chief Executive of Families Outside, Adelle Gardiner, Families Outside and Justina Murray, Chief Officer of South West Scotland CJA. The Convenor of the National CJA Convenors Group, Councillor Peter McNamara from South West Scotland CJA and the L&B CJA Convenor Catherine Johnstone will be in attendance to launch the consultation and say a few words on the importance of working together around this shared priority.

This will be followed by interactive discussion and a Q & A session and the CJA Chief Officer will offer closing remarks. This workshop is free to attend and open to everyone across the Justice family in Lothian & Borders and beyond, but we would ask that you confirm your place as numbers are limited. To secure your place please email Erica or Andrea (amcja@scotborders.gov.uk) by close of business 14 August 2013. Tea, coffee and a light lunch will be available after the workshop to provide networking opportunity.

Catherine Johnstone
Convenor
L&B Community Justice Authority

Sheriff Principal MM Stephen
L&B Criminal Justice Board